Excerpts from Hoover Commission Report of 28 December 1948

Chapter II, Page 48

"Some thought should be given to merging the map services, now under the Office of Research and Estimates, with the other reference facilities under the Office of Collection and Dissemination."

Chapter II, Page 50

"Duplication in the field of economic research can probably be reduced over a period of time by intelligent use of "coordinating" power exercised over many Government agencies."
